

WHY BUY FROM DIAMOND BLADEMAN?

- Ease of mind, sawing safety, blade performance
- ISO 9001 certified blade manufacture quality consistency and reliability
- Blades developed tested and proven in New Zealand with over 30 years experience in this specialty.
- Specialised safety training of hazardous power cut off saw operators
- FREE on site visits by blade designer
- Friendly and helpful after sales service by skilled personnel
- Regular systematic after sales telephone service calls
- Free technical assistance

- Modern leading edge diamond blade technology
- Rapid ex stock same day delivery for most blade specifications
- Special design blades made in small quantities for customers specific requirements
- Free large resource of helpful technical articles troubleshooting etc
- Blades work efficiently with all brands of saws
- Overseas power cut off saw safety training for construction companies with overseas branches
- NZQA qualified trainer assessor available
- Person to person customer service schedule from Whangarei to Invercargill
- Large stock of hugely varied blades for nearly every construction sawing need.
- All budgets and buyer preferences catered for
- Sensible prices

- Extra tough blade safety inspection prior to approval for shipment
- Full operating and safety instructions
- Specialized high impact safety helmet technology for power cut off saw users